

Joseph P. Stampone
Firm Founder

AREAS OF PRACTICE

Catastrophic Personal Injury, Negligence, Automobile Accidents, Wrongful Death, Premises Liability, Liquor Liability, Product Liability, Workers' Compensation, Medical Malpractice and Commercial Real Estate Transactions.

Joseph P. Stampone is the founder and principal shareholder of Stampone D'Angelo DiPiero. Since 1981, his practice has focused on a variety of complex civil litigation matters. He represents plaintiffs in connection with catastrophic personal injury, negligence, automobile accidents, wrongful death, premises liability, liquor liability, product liability, workers' compensation, medical malpractice and commercial real estate transactions, while also managing the firm. He has been named a Pennsylvania Super Lawyer® as featured in Philadelphia Magazine.

Previously, Joe served as a law clerk to the Honorable Albert F. Sabo from 1979 to 1980 and Edwin S. Malmed in 1978. Both jurists sat on the bench of the First Judicial District of Pennsylvania, Court of Common Pleas, Philadelphia County; the first in the Criminal Division and the latter in the Civil Division.

Joe is admitted to practice in the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania; the Bar of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania; the United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit; the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania; and the United States Tax Court.

Joe is actively involved in the community, having served as an officer and commissioner of the Lower Gwynedd Little League; member of the Order of Sons of Italy in America, Tacony/Mayfair Lodge; member and counsel to the United Independent Italian American Club, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; and a member of the Torresdale-Mayfair Lion's Club. Joe is also the President of the National Italian American Political Action Committee, where he has served as a board member since 2000. He has also served as the Dinner Chair for NIA-PAC's annual "Carnevale". In 2005, Joe was given the distinct honor of being knighted in Rome, Italy as a "Cavalieri di Cristo" with the Templar Order of the Poor Knights of Christ. In 2008, he received the Golden Justice Award at Pennsylvania Golden Gloves Eastern Regional Championships.

Born and raised in Northeast Philadelphia, Joe currently resides in Lower Gwynedd Township, Pennsylvania with his wife and five children. Joe's interests include sports, cooking, music, and history. Joe is also actively involved in commercial real estate development (see FJ3 Development) in Pennsylvania and South Florida. To read a detailed article about FJ3, click here. Joe is also a principal in and counsel to Max's Grille American Bistro. In his spare time Joe boats and fishes at the New Jersey shore and has coached American Legion and AAU Baseball. Through coaching Joe is able to share his passion for baseball with others. He became very involved in baseball throughout his youth and attended LaSalle University on an Athletic Scholarship where he played Varsity Baseball for four years. In his senior year, he was named First Team All East Coast Conference and set numerous school records. Recently he was the Assistant Varsity Baseball Coach of The Shipley School, Bryn Mawr, Pennsylvania and is the Founder of the Whiz Kids Baseball Club, an AAU level program. He has also coached American Legion baseball and is currently the owner and coach of the Plymouth Pirates of the Perkiomen Valley Twilight League, a semi-professional baseball club.
