

Vincent B. Mancini, Esq.
Law Offices of Vincent B. Mancini, Esq., Media

Mr. Mancini is a practicing attorney in Media, Delaware County, since 1978, with an extensive practice in zoning, land development and complex real estate transactions, together with business and commercial transactions and litigation. He has served as a lecturer and has published numerous articles on the subject of zoning, land use development, environmental law and business matters. Mr. Mancini was the course planner and lecturer for the PBI seminars: "Evolution of Fraud Claims in Real Estate Sales - From 'Caveat Emptor' to Affirmative Obligation to Disclose Defects"; and "Introduction - Recent Developments in the Environmental Liability of Private & Institutional Lenders". He has been the Chairman of the Zoning and Land Use Committee of the Real Property, Probate and Trust Law Section of the Pennsylvania Bar Association since 1988 and is the immediate past Chair of the Section. Mr. Mancini is the Chairman of the Delaware County Bar Association Real Estate Practices Committee. He is a member of the American, Pennsylvania and Delaware County Bar associations. Mr. Mancini graduated magna cum laude with a B.S. from the University of Dayton and received his J.D. from the Dickinson School of Law. He served as a law clerk with the Honorable Theodore O. Rogers of the Commonwealth Court of Pennsylvania from 1976 to 1978.